

How to handle high voltage power lines

It takes skill to handle high voltage lines... but it's everyday work for P.G. and E.'s highly trained crews. Welding their "hot sticks" or live-line tools—more than 80 in each kit—they service and repair California's electrical highways to keep the flow of power trouble-free. Line crews are provided with rubberized equipment that weighs 100 pounds, including sleeves, snap-on jackets, line hoses (or "snakes"), insulator hoods (or "pigs"), and blankets.

Rubber gloves designed to resist 10,000 volts give ample protection to workmen who handle "hot" lines carrying up to 4500 volts, the prescribed safety limit. With "hot sticks" special crews handle lines charged with as much as 220,000 volts.

Three years' field work, including a "hot line" training course, are required to become a P.G. and E. lineman. 600 men have qualified in the past year—men who today are helping speed more power to Northern and Central California.

For the record

Our 12,000 miles of line built since the war would reach halfway around the world.

We are adding nearly 2 million horsepower of generating capacity.

Our power expansion is the greatest in the nation today.

Work never stops on our power-building program

RC Suspect In Theft Case Takes Life

Roy L. Nelson, 39, a Montgomery Ward & Co. employee in Redwood City for whom police had warrants charging grand and petty theft, Monday was termed a suicide by the Yolo County coroner's office.

His body was found in an automobile near Woodland Sunday. A hose had been fastened to the exhaust pipe and run into the car, the coroner said.

Paul Lorentzen, San Mateo County deputy coroner, said that he had telephoned W. C. McNary, the Yolo coroner and had learned that the death was "no doubt" a suicide. When the body was found Sunday night, he continued, Nelson had been dead for approximately 24 hours.

Redwood City police held a grand theft warrant for his arrest which was signed by J. A. Keating, Wards manager here. That warrant, signed Oct. 8, charged that on June 3 Nelson took tires valued at $365 from the retail store where he was the tires sales manager. It also charges that on July 13 he took another $388.37 worth of tires.

The petty theft warrant was signed by C. K. Lundborg, superintendent of Wards' protection department. That warrant charges that on Aug. 8 Nelson took $57.60 worth of tires, $100.08 worth on June 15, $19.90 worth on July 10, and 100.08 worth on Sept. 22.

Nelson, his widow, Edna, 39, and three children moved to Redwood City from Sacramento four years ago. They had lived at 509 Stambaugh St.

His widow said that he had been dismissed a week ago. Saturday, she continued, he got up and said he was going to Sacramento. After he left she said, she had a premonition that he would take his own life.

Lundborg said he had talked to Nelson on Tuesday and that Nelson had admitted some of the thefts. He said he would return Wednesday for another talk.

STUDENT ARRESTED

James C. Pidgeon, 19, a Menlo Junior College student, was arrested Sunday by Redwood City police on charges of drunken and reckless driving. He was apprehended at El Camino Real and Madison Ave. and later released on $200 bail.

Man Faces Death Charge In Shooting

Edward H. Hall, 37-year-old timber cutter, was charged formally Monday afternoon with manslaughter in connection with the shooting of the husband of his 15-year-old daughter.

Walter King, 23, the son-in-law, died Saturday night in Community Hospital. He had been shot Thursday with a .22 caliber rifle.

Dep. Dist. Atty. Harry Davis said that he had drawn up a complaint charging Hall with manslaughter. A preliminary hearing has been set for Friday afternoon before Justice of the Peace Manuel J. Bettencourt in Half Moon Bay.

Davis said that the shooting showed "willful and wanton negligence." The two men apparently had been having a heated argument about a hunting trip prior to the shooting, he declared.

The shooting occurred in a cabin west of Pescadero, near Memorial Park, about midnight Thursday.

Nine persons, including King's 15-year-old bride and her five younger brothers and sisters were in the shack at the time.

Frank Marlowe, district attorney's investigator, said that Hall admitted loading the .22 rifle, putting it on the floor and later picking it up again.

Hall pulled the trigger, thinking the safety catch was on, after King said "go ahead and shoot me," Marlowe said Hall told him.

Pleads Guilty To SM Theft

Thomas E. Butler, 21, of San Mateo, pleaded guilty in superior court late Monday to stealing $1.65 from the clubhouse of the San Mateo Municipal Golf Course, Coyote Point.

He entered the plea before Judge Edmund Scott after the charge was reduced from burglary to petty theft. Dep. Dist. Atty. Henry Davis said that the money, in dimes and nickels, was taken from a cigaret machine.

Prisoners 'Steal Jail' In San Carlos

BY BARNEY GUGEL

Prisoners in the San Carlos Portola Fiesta's "Kangaroo Court, Kalaboose" Monday night upped and stole the portable jail away from court officials when they weren't looking. The jail was finally located by city policemen after an hour-long search.

The combination jail and courtroom, built on the back of a truck, is being used by chamber of commerce officials to "jail" and fine San Carlos residents who have not grown beards or donned costumes for the Portola Festival.

Police said that last night the chamber's amateur sleuths and Kangaroo Judge Ben Tanklich were rounding up suspects and putting them in the portable jail.

After driving around town for a while with their prisoners, they stopped at a San Carlos market to investigate a report that one of the market's employees was not wearing a costume nor sporting a beard. The judge and his henchmen went inside to apprehend the culprit.

When they returned to the jail, all they found was an empty parking place. After an unsuccessful search, they called out the police department to find their jail.

Police located the missing truck an hour later parked near a real estate office and plastered with real estate signs. Officers noticed that a large hole had been made in top of the jail.

Inside a nearby cocktail lounge, police found the escaped prisoners. After Judge Tanklich dismissed contempt of court charges and promised not to fine the prisoners for failing to wear costumes, they returned the truck keys to the judge.

Party Burglar Sentenced To Prison

Troy W. Lockhart, 29-year-old "party burglar," was sentenced to San Quentin prison late Monday after Superior Judge Edmund Scott commented that "we are going to protect our homes."

"I wouldn't want him to come to my house when I am entertaining guests," the judge remarked in answer to a plea for clemency by Lockhart's attorney, John A. Cost.

Judge Scott pointed out that not only were homes burglarized, but that Mrs. David Holder, 919 Blandford Ave., was struck over the head when she surprised the burglar at work. Police reported that Lockhart confessed to nine party-time burglaries in Redwood City, San Carlos and Burlingame. He was charged with the ones in Redwood City, the Holder home on Aug. 2, and the home of Charles Halling, 513 Upton St., on Aug. 23.

Lockhart had worked out a system for his crimes. He chose only homes where guests were being entertained. He would enter the unoccupied part of the houses and take purses.

He landed in jail when his system backfired. Mrs. Holder surprised him while he was in her home. He struck her over the head, fled, but was picked up on the street by police a short time afterward.

Cost, in pleading that Lockhart be given a jail rather than a penitentiary term, said that his client had been sent to the Texas penitentiary when he was 17 for theft of bicycles. Lockhart, an army veteran with three years overseas service, for two years was a prisoner of war in the Dachau concentration camp. Cost told the judge.

The report of Adult Probation Officer Don Helbush, who recommended a San Quentin term, showed that Lockhart had a long police record, with arrests in Dallas, Fort Worth and Huntsville, Tex., for burglary, car theft and forgery.

Chope Tells Of Polio Rise In SM County

The San Mateo County Health and Welfare Dept. Monday finally admitted that infantile paralysis had reached the epidemic stage in the county, with a total of 54 cases this year.

However, Dr. Harold Chope, the health director, was standing firm on his prediction that the worst was over, and that the disease was on the decline.

Seven cases have been reported this month, Dr. Chope said, and the onset of all of them was before Oct. 6, although diagnoses were made from three to four days afterward. No cases have occurred during the past six days.

"The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis tells us that when incidence of cases reaches 20 to 100,000 population, we have an epidemic year," Dr. Chope stated. "Up to Sept. 30 we have already had 47 cases during a year for our 250,000 population."

"It seems likely that the health officer had better admit that we have had an epidemic on our hands and stop fencing around, calling the polio situation a 'flurry of cases,' an 'outbreak,' etc."

However, on the basis of our experience thus far in October, the worst appears to be over," Dr. Chope praised the work of the local chapter of the Polio Foundation, which is taking care of costs of hospitalization.

The last case reported is that of a 14-year-old Menlo Park boy who is in the respirator at Community Hospital.

The other six this month are those of a 7-year-old Menlo Park girl; a 34-year-old Stanford Village woman; a 10-year-old San Mateo boy; a 5-year-old Burlingame boy; a 13-year-old Midway Village girl; and a 21-year-old Daly City man.

How an injured cable calls for help

1. Here's the "ear"—an electronic ear called a low insulation alarm. It listens for underwater cables to signal they're in trouble. Right now the meter shows something's happened... perhaps a sharp submerged rock has cut a cable... and vigilant telephone men using another testing device locate the break that may be miles away.

2. On the job fast, a repair barge grapples for the cable and lifts it from its underwater bed... guided almost to the exact spot by the distant test center. And the moment the break was discovered, other telephone people in the Traffic Control Bureau set up emergency routes to make any delay on your calls as brief as possible.

3. At top speed, skilled workmen splice in a new section and the cable is soon back in service. Although there are hundreds of underwater crossings in the West's many bays and rivers, such emergencies are infrequent. But telephone people are on the job 24 hours a day to keep your telephone ready to work for you any time you need it.

4. When you make a telephone call, you hire a valuable servant for low wages... a more useful servant than ever before. It can do more jobs, run more errands. For today there are twice as many telephones in the West as ten years ago. Thousands more go in each month. And each new phone added makes your telephone that much more useful.

350 Prep Journalists Set For Stanford Conference

Three hundred and fifty high school journalism students and their advisers will be the guests of Stanford's Institute for Journalistic Studies at the 25th annual convention of the Central California Scholastic Press Assn. on the Stanford campus Saturday.

A day-long program, beginning with registration at 9 a.m. in the Education Building lobby, and ranging from speeches and round-table panels on current journalistic issues to campus tours and an afternoon coffee dance, has been scheduled for the young newsmen, Institute Director Dr. Chilton R. Bush announced.

The group will be welcomed in Cubberley Hall at 9:30 a.m. by Dr. Bush; Robert Bullock, president of the Stanford chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, national honorary journalism fraternity; Byron Phillips Jr., president of Alpha Delta Sigma, advertising fraternity, and Miss Paula Nussler, president of Theta Sigma Phi, women's honorary journalism fraternity.

Stanford's director of information, Frederic O. Glover, will speak to the student journalists on the topic, "A Reporter in the World of Science," following the welcoming addresses.

Prior to the annual luncheon in the Stanford Union, the students will be invited to attend a series of editorial and business management panels directed by members of the institute faculty, professional newsmen and newspaper business and advertising directors.

Miss Elinor Cogswell, editor of the Palo Alto Times, will speak on careers in journalism at the beginning of the afternoon session. Her talk will be followed by a series of discussions sponsored by the institute faculty.

Members of Sigma Delta Chi and Theta Sigma Phi will direct the afternoon campus tours and the "jolly-up" at 4:30 p.m. in the Niter of the Stanford Union.

Sharing in the conference program will be the following officers of the Central California Association of Journalism Advisers: President, Price Robinson of Fresno High School; vice president, James Zeno of San Leandro High School; secretary, Helen A. Reynolds of Los Gatos High School; and treasurer, T. H. Ellsworth, McClymonds High School, Oakland.

Panel speakers will include Ellis H. Sprunger Jr., sports editor of the Redwood City Tribune.

Brisbane Wife Asks Divorce

A Brisbane woman who claims that her husband tried to have her committed as insane has filed an amended complaint in superior court seeking to divorce him.

Mrs. Bonnie L. Tipps charged that her husband, Archie E. Tipps, a Brisbane garage owner, beat her "unmercifully" and threatened to kill her if she had him arrested.

After many beatings, Tipps had her confined for three days at Community Hospital and on Aug. 27 swore out a petition accusing her of being insane, she alleged. The commitment proceedings were dismissed on Aug. 30 by the judge.

Mrs. Tipps wants $150 a month alimony and $1000, which she claims she loaned him since their marriage. They were married last Dec. 24, and separated in August.

Martin Buses To Add SC Lines

The California Public Utilities Commission has authorized R. F. Martin, operator of the Martin Transportation Co., to open an additional bus route between San Carlos and Redwood City. The company's petition said the new route would extend service to recently developed areas in San Carlos.

The authorized route begins at San Carlos Ave. and Cedar St., and goes from San Carlos to Beverly Dr., on Beverly to Bolton Ave., Devonshire Blvd., Fay Ave., Carmelita Dr., Junipero Serra Blvd., Alma Rd., Cordillera Ave., Bell Ave., Tamarack Ave., Dayton Ave., Brittan Ave., Alameda de Las Pulgas and Whipple Rd.

News of Commuters

Top news of the week is the plight of Boy Scout Troop 160 sponsored by the Commuters Club. For the past year Troop 160 has been on the move trying to find a meeting place. A couple of months ago we thought they were permanently located in John Gill School but due to crowded conditions, out they go again.

Not only do they need a meeting place but they own a good deal of valuable equipment that needs protection. It's about time that the citizens of this town get together and see what can be done about housing Boy Scouts and other youth organizations. This is a very grave situation and can't be passed over too lightly. Let's hear from everyone interested. We can't have these kids meet out in a vacant lot.

Last Tuesday night the board of directors met at the home of Fred Jaeger, secretary of the club, and a large crowd not only enjoyed a snappy session but were still talking about the wonderful refreshments served by Mrs. Jaeger.

Thanks to the efforts of our city council and others interested in the safety of residents of Redwood City, signals will be placed shortly at two locations on the Bayshore Hwy., also another set of signals on El Camino Hwy. This is one of the finest things yet to happen for the good of the community.

Plans are still being formulated for the annual joint meeting of the Commuters and Kiwanis Clubs at the Three Owls Restaurant on Monday, Oct. 25. Make a date with a friend and be sure to attend this meeting.

News of Boy Scouts

(Agency of Redwood City Community Chest)

The last session of the three-session training course which has been held for the past three weeks in order to quickly acquaint new Den mothers with the complete picture of Cubbing was held in the Redwood City Recreation Center last Wednesday under the leadership of Mrs. Will Rogers, southern district Den Mother commissioner.

Mrs. Phyllis Walker talked and gave demonstrations of crafts suitable for work in the Den and the film, "The Cub Pack," was shown by Asst. Scout Exec. Chet E. Wilson.

Present at the meeting were: Mmes. Man Confesses Theft of Lingerie

A San Mateo man who stole about $350 worth of women's lingerie for his wife Monday pleaded guilty to a petty theft charge before Superior Judge Edmund Scott.

Francis J. Zwakhals, 37, of 614 Fifth Ave., San Mateo, asked for probation and is to be sentenced on Oct. 25.

Zwakhals originally was charged with grand theft, but the charge was lowered at the request of Dep. Dist. Atty. Henry Davis, who said that the underwear apparently had been taken from the Joseph Magnin store, San Mateo, where Zwakhals worked, in small amounts.

Sophomore officers include Bill Briggs, president; Marilee Ritchie, vice president; Barbara Unger, secretary, and Marlene Breer, treasurer.

New freshman class officers are Stelson Schott, president; Rose Marie Corradi, vice president; Shirley Butelo, secretary, and Jessie Lund, treasurer.

The elections were held last Friday, but because of a football game Friday afternoon, student officials were unable to tabulate election results until Monday.

3 L. A. Youths Arrested Here

Three Los Angeles youths were in the San Mateo County juvenile home Monday awaiting return to Los Angeles, where they are wanted for car theft.

The trio was picked up by California Highway Patrolmen Neil Porter and Robert Dickinson at 12:40 a.m. while hitchhiking on Bayshore Hwy. The boys, 15 and 16 years old, told the officers they were going to San Francisco to join the merchant marine.

When the officers took the youths to the CHP office, they found a teletype warrant for the boys' arrest. The youths admitted taking a car in Los Angeles yesterday morning, driving it to Kingsburg and abandoning it when it ran out of oil.

Firemen Again Called To Elm St. Home

Redwood City firemen extinguished a $50 damage blaze at a house owned by Dorie Wallace at 308 Elm St. Monday at 4:59 p.m.

The fire burned a bed and a wall and was believed to have been started by children.

It was at the same address where on Oct. 3 firemen saved the life of 12-month-old Terry Lee Braswell. The daughter of Margaret Braswell had stopped breathing and firemen administered resuscitator treatment. The child was suffering from a cold.

Women of the Moose Hear Reports From Committees

Standing committee reports were given at the regular semi-monthly meeting of the Women of the Moose, Redwood City Chapter 601, on Tuesday evening.

Members of the library committee reported they are making scrap books and have given magazines to the hospitals. They discussed plans for giving books to the libraries of the various new schools in Redwood City. The group also will send books to the Children's Library at Mooseheart, Ill.

Moosehaven committee members gave a report on the "adopted" couple at Moosehaven, Orange Park, Fla., and plans for a Christmas remembrance for them.

The date for the Halloween party was set for Saturday evening, Oct. 30. The Loyal Order of the Moose 1112 will be invited to attend. The children of the Moose will have their party on Sunday evening, Oct. 31, and may bring one guest, it was announced.

Nelle Van Buskirk, ritualistic committee chairman, reported that officers' escorts would continue practicing at the next executive committee meeting.

SAFEWAY MEATS are trimmed before weighing SO YOU SAVE MONEY

You get more good-eating meat for your money when you buy trimmed-before-weighing meats. The illustration at right shows you how Safeway trims rib roast before it is displayed for sale. Result: you pay only for portion that will eat just right...not for excess bone, waste and fat. Safeway regularly trims its meats this money-saving way—each cut according to its own special requirements. Start buying trimmed-before-weighing meats today and see how they help keep your food budget in line.
